HIDDEN HEALERS

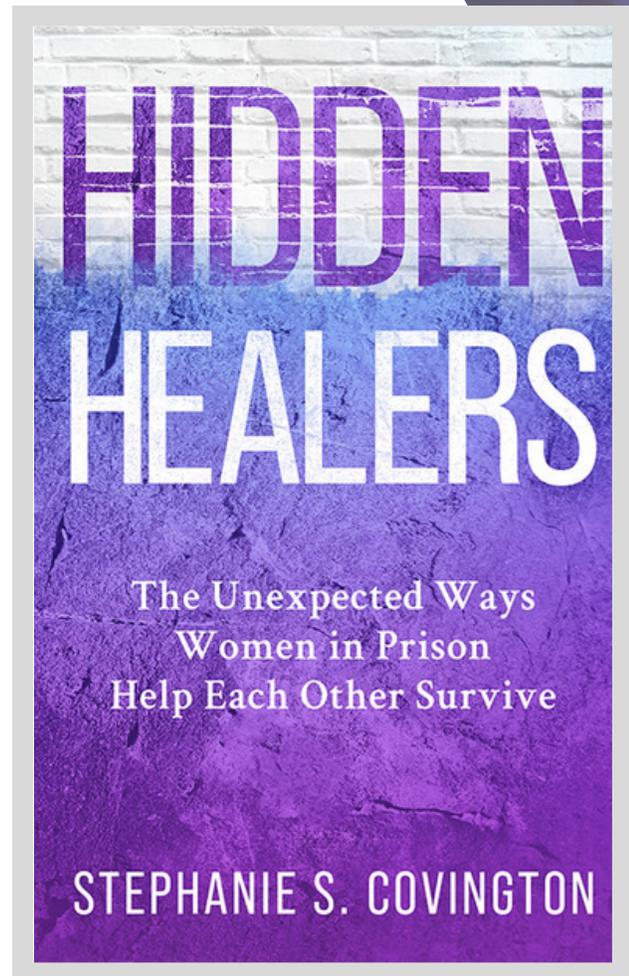

Uncovering the Hidden Stories of Women in the Criminal Justice System

Join us at the Covington Curriculum Conference and be among the first to hear about Dr. Stephanie Covington's latest work, Hidden Healers: Women in the Criminal Justice System.

Drawing on more than three decades of experience working with women who have been incarcerated, Dr. Covington provides a compelling and eye-opening account of the challenges and triumphs of these women, who often remain invisible to society.

The book is based on over twenty interviews with formerly incarcerated women. It documents the:

- 1) Overwhelming need for help and healing,
- 2) How prisons and “the system” do not provide this
- 3) And how women- even those who have their own struggles- are moved to help others.
